

3rd Euro-Japanese Colloquium: Myth, Sanctuary, and Historiography

25th – 26th April 2014

The Upper House, British School at Athens

Friday 25th April

09.30:

- Mariko Sakurai – The Orphikoi in Classical Athens and in the Derveni Papyrus
- Kazuhiro Takeuchi – Dionysos in Sphettos: SEG XXXVI 187 Revisited

Coffee

11.30:

- Noboru Sato – Hellenistic Didyma and Milesian mythical past
- David Braund - Ephesus, Artemis and colonization in the northern Black Sea region

13.00: Lunch – Upper House

14.00:

- Shinya Ueno – Reading Suburb: The Context of the Phaedrus
- Jeremy McNerney - City-slickers and rustic bores: Herakleides Kritikos and the marketing of Hellenistic Athens

Coffee

16.00:

- Takashi Fujii – Emperor, Sanctuary and Myth in Roman Cyprus
- Francesco Camia - Gods and Emperors in Roman Greece: a successful combination
- Yoshiyuki Suto – Comparative Perspectives on the Emergence of Divine Honours in Ancient Greece and Prewar Japan

20.00: Reception supper for speakers on the Catling Terrace, Hostel Building

Saturday 26th

10.30:

- Akiko Moroo – Transformation and Re-Creation of Memory through the Ages: Local Pride and the Rendering of the Persian Wars
- Ben Earley - The Athenian Empire and Greek interstate relations: a view from the eighteenth century
- Estelle Strazdins - Controlling Memory: Philostratus' Commemoration of Herodes Atticus

13.00: Lunch – Upper House

14.00:

- Xenia Arapogianni & Andronike Makres - The Excavations of Ancient Thouria (2007-2013) and the Epigraphic Evidence
- Athanasios Rizakis - Up and down the social ladder in the periphery of the Roman world: the case of Peloponnesian cities

Coffee

16.00:

- Hajime Tanaka - Theodosius' Religious Policy in the Ecclesiastical History of Theodoretus
- John Karavas - The Late Roman Limes in Skythia in the aftermath of the battle of Adrianople (378 CE)

18.30: Drinks reception in the Upper House garden