

©Kobe City

Atmosphere in Architecture and Urban Design

KOIAS INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

14.30 (JST): Opening Address by Ichiro NAGASAKA (Kobe Univ.)

14.40-15.20: Federico DE MATTEIS (L'Aquila Univ., Italy, via Zoom): From Density to Intensity. Urban Materialities and the Spatiality of Feelings.

15.20-15.50: Kenta MATSUI (Otemon Gakuin Univ., Japan): Atmosphere that Makes "Architecture" Appear: Three Possible Preconditions for Architectural Criticism.

16.00-16.40: Naoko KURIYAMA (Kobe Univ.): Townscape and Neighborhood Image Formed by Community's Management Activities: A Case Study of Kobe City.

16.40-17.20: Takeshi HARAGUCHI (Kobe Univ.): Gentrification and the "Atmospheric Violence". Toward a Critical Geography of Atmosphere.

17.20-18.00: Jürgen HASSE (Frankfurt Univ. em., Germany, via Zoom): The City as a Vitalistic Space of Density.

18.10-18.30: Closing Discussion

Organizer: Yuho HISAYAMA
(Kobe Univ., Japan)

Commentator: Tonino
GRIFFERO (Rome Tor Vergata
Univ., Italy)

January 20, 2024 14:30-18:30

Conference Room (Dai Kaigi
Shitsu), 5th Floor, Building C,
Graduate School of Humanities, Kobe University

No Advanced Registration is Required. Free Admission.

Supported by SHIMADZU Corporation

