KOIAS Talk by Alberto Parisi at Kobe University

On December 4, 2024, KOIAS hosted an hybrid talk by Alberto Parisi, Special Project Assistant Professor at KOIAS. His presentation, titled “From Intention to Atmosphere: The Respiratory and Atmospheric Roots of European Culture,” examined the relationship between intention and atmosphere in European culture, spanning ancient and late-antique philosophical theories and contemporary understandings of intention and Stimmung.

HEIDEGGER TRIED TO REPLACE INTENTION WITH ATMOSPHERES

What he did not see is that intention and atmosphere were already linked from the beginning
