

International Workshop: Multilingualism and Media

Date: 24 January 2026, 13:30-17:30

Venue: Kobe University, Graduate School of Humanities, A119

Masumi Kameda (Nagoya University):

Edelweiss and National Sentiment

Charlène Clonts (Kuhshu University) & Barış Çoban (Doğuş University):

Languages in Motion: Media, Culture, and Multilingual Practices Across Contexts

**Charlène Clonts**

Associate Professor at Kyushu University (Japan) and head of the international and interventional research project Well-Being with Arts, she focuses on the intersection of 20th–21st c. literatures, arts, and health humanities, emphasizing intermedia practices and their transformative potential.

**Barış Çoban**

Professor at Doğuş University and Dean of the Arts and Sciences Faculty, Turkey, and currently a Visiting Professor at Kyushu University, Japan. His research interests include social movements, alternative new media, alternative journalism, journalists' safety, surveillance, and counter-surveillance.

Institute for the Promotion of Humanities Research, Kobe University
JSPS Grant-in-Aid for Challenging Research (Exploratory) 25K21848